Headteacher: Miss Katherine Cooper

15th September 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope that your child is enjoying being back at school and getting into the swing of school life. When I go around the classes they are very busy. I have enjoyed teaching a few classes this week.

Value

The children have chosen this half terms value which is Friendship. The children talked about being kind, playing together, helping each other, sharing things and being fair.

Website

Please remember that the website is a source of information about the school. Please do refer to this.
