

Dini's Drama Club at Cunningham Hill Infant School – Autumn 2018

Dini's Drama Club has been successfully running for 10 years at Cunningham Hill Infants. It concentrates around the four C's which are Confidence, Concentration, Communication and Coordination. Each game, song or dance focusses on each of the four C's which I believe is imperative to thriving in and out of school! The children learn how to talk in front of their peers, work as a team whilst having fun dancing and singing and burning off some energy! As for myself, I am an actor and have been teaching performing arts for the past 20 years both in after school clubs and at Emil Dale Academy teaching children from 2 to adults of 25. My priority in these clubs is for the children to have the most fun possible whilst gaining some life skills and discovering their hidden talents.
